

Assignment 04 _ Film Types

Project: Use MidJourney to Generate (6) Images with different Film Types (also explore Movies, Directors, Producers, as well as explore different Cameras and Camera shots) Additionally, explore different Aspect Ratios as a means to better tell your stories. Note: it's not required that you use multiple AR's, however it's important that you explore them.

Objective: Use MidJourney to explore different film types to use later this semester. These techniques will be useful to help tell your stories.

Process: Use very specific prompt words describing the film type that you want. Through the generative process create 6 images, each showing a different film type.
